PREFACE

We have Vedic Index and Dictionary of Pali Proper Names prepared by eminent scholars But such an index or a dictionary of Prakrit names was a desideratum [1] The task of preparing Vedic index or Pali dictionary was somewhat easy It was so because most of the concerned Vedic and Pali works were published with ind ces But different is the case w th the Prakrit canonical works of the Jainas All the published works (barring some few exceptions like the four works published in the West and Bhratkalpabhasya edited in five volumes by Rev Muni Shri Punyavijayaji contain no index whatsoever

So we are extremely happy in placing before the scholars the first part of the Dictionary of Prakrit Proper Names This is not a work of a single person but it is a co operative work done by a team of scholars I must tl ank all the scholars who co operated in this common task

The dictionary as a whole contains about 8 000 proper names collected from the canonical texts of the Śvetambara Jainas The names are collect ed not only from the original canonical texts but also from their pr nted Prakrit commentaries viz Niryuktis Bhaṣyas and Curnis But as the title of the present work suggests we have not selected the proper names from the Sanskrit commenta ies on those original canonical texts Of course, they have been util sed for supplementing the informations gathered under each item f om Prakrit or ginal canon cal texts and Prakrit commentaries thereon

The work was begun in 1959 by Dr Hariprasad Shastri Dr J S Jetly and Shri K K Shastri by prepar ng reference cards from some of the texts with their commentaries This task was finished by me when unfortunately they left the institute When all the reference cards were ready the work of compilat on was entrusted to Dr Mohanlal Mehta under my supervision and guidance in the year 1961 Later in the year 1962 he was assisted by D K R Chandra in finalis ng the compilation These two scholars were again assisted by Pt Rupendra Kumar Pagariya in finding out the references mentioned in the reference cards Dr Mehta left us in 1964 The

1 Of course there exists one noteworthy work in Gujarati Language Ja na Agamasāhityamām Gujarat by Dr B J Sandesara (Pub Gujarat Vidyāsabhā) the scope of which i limited revision was completed in the year 1967 The book went to press in 1968 when I was n Toronto When Dr Chandra left the Institute in 1969 the task of getting the book printed fell solely upon Dr N J Shah

Like Dictionary of Pali Proper Names this dictionary too includes some names which are not proper names e g Titthamkara Cakkavatti etc It is hoped that they will be useful to the scholars

While preparing this dictionary generally the compilers have not utilis ed the data available in other sources They have collected data only from the Jain canonical texts and the r Prakr t and Sanskrit commentaries Only with regards to g ographical names they have utilised the other sources In sp te of th s I hope that the scholars will be benefitted by th s dictionary because this s for the first t me that the data from the Jaina canonical l t rature s collected and arranged

The pr nting of the work follows the pattern set out n the D ctionary of Pali Proper Names Information of a particular name will not be com plete unless the names printed in bold types a e also consulted The bold types are used to indicate that a name printed n those types is separately dealt with at its proper place The Sanskr t and Prakrit terms used in description are in ital c types

The numbers g en in brackets after the name printed n bold types indicate that the relevent name with that number s dealt with at its proper place

I heartily thank Shr Kasturbhai Lalbh the Chairman of the Institute for allowing us to undertake such an exorbitantly exp nsive project More over I thank the min stry of Education and Youth Ser ice Govt of India for sanction n the publication Grant of Rs 12 000/

When Kālasūriya was severely suffering on his death-bed Abhaa helped him dying peacefully [18] Senia was so much pleased with Abhaa that he offered him the crown but the latter refused it[19] and became a disciple of Titthayara Mahāvīra [20] He would be reborn in the celestial abode Vijaya(21) and would get emancipation in Mahāvideha(1) [21]

Some other anecdotes associated with Abhaa are — getting one-pillar palace constructed through a deity [22] searching out a thief who stole mangoes from the palace garden [23] setting Seyanaya free from an alligator [24] saving Cellana s life by not setting fire to her palace inspite of the orders from Senia [25] finding out the people who were really religious and those who pretended to be so [26] catching a washerman red handed who wore Abhaa s clothes sent for laundry [27] stopping people from abusing a wood-cutter who had renounced the world[28] and his attempt to capture the thief Rohiniya [29]

Ājīviga (Ajivika) See Ajiviya

1 A C I p 503

Ājīviya (Ajivika) One of the five Samaṇa(1) sects [1] It was founded by Gosāla [2] Aj viya is explained as one who follows ascet c life for the sake of livelihood [3] The followers of this sect used to observe austerit es for gaining worldly fame respect and supernatural powers and with the help of all that they carried on their livelihood They seem to be using the science of asṭa ga mahanimitta for predictions

They had their own sacred literature called Aj viyasutta The r yuta cyutaśrenikapa ika ma is ncluded in Parikamma [7] a sect o f D tthi aya The chief tenets of this creed of fatal sm are as follows It is an stabl hed fact that there are individual souls they exper ence pleasure and pa and on dying they lose the r state of life But pleasure a d pa n are e th r caused by the souls themselves nor by others It is th lot ass g ed to them by Destiny [8] The soul of one who is pure will become free f om bad Karmas but n that state it will again become defiled through pleasant excite ment or hate As clear water that was free f om defilement becomes again defiled when shaken so will be th soul [9] There s no free will and all is predeterm ned Gosala s pr ncipal teach ng was natth utth e i v kamme i vā bale i va virie i va purisakkara parakkame i v niyay savva bhava [0] The souls are bound to attain liberat on n due course e at the end of the eighty four lakh mahakalpas having transm grated through na ta samyuthas seven d vasamyuthas seven samjnigarbha and seven p a rttapari haras The seven divyasamyuthas are three manasas three man sotta as and one brahmal ka In th s long p r od 560603 Karmas get destroyed Gosala preached eight finals (aṭṭha car maim ca ima pana geya natta c am jalikamma c pokkhalasamvaṭṭ a mahameha c seya aa gamdhahatthi c maha silakamṭaa samgama) as well as four drinks and four unfit dr nks (cattari pānagaim and cattāri apa agaim)

The story of Ayampula (2) reveals that Ajiviya monks could know the thoughts of other s mind [3] As regards the conduct of this sect it is said that Ajiviya monks used to keep some articles with them [14] and they rema ined naked [1] they d d not take bath [16] they used to take food prepared for them they had no control over their palate and they used to take food contaminated with living beings They were not used to keep control over their passions, body speech and mind They did not practice carefulness and meditation as the Jainas did [17] They used to beg at every house and sometimes at alternate house or the third house or seventh house They accepted the stalks of lotuses At the time of lightning they would not go for begging They used to perform penances seated in earthen pots They could get reborn after death at the most in the Accuya celestial region [18]

Twelve prom nent lay votaries of this sect are mentioned [19] Its lay votaries did not observe temporary amayika as the Jaina lay votaries did [20] They used to take meat also [21] Hālāhalā was a staunch female lay votary and patron of this sect [22] Sāv tthi and Polāsapura were thriving centres of this sect [23] According to Viyāhapaṇṇatti many of the Aji iya monks gave up the leadersh p of Gosāla and joined the order of T tthayara Mahāvira.[24]

Ajiviya is also called Terāsiya inasmuch as he admits a third state of souls besides those of the bound and liberated This state is that of rede filement after l beration [5] Aj viya is also known as Pamdarabhikkhu [26]

11 Āṇaṁda A multimillionaire householder of Vāṇiyaggāma Sivanamdā was his wife He was owner of four cattle sheds each consisting of ten thousand cows He had accepted all the twelve vows of a upasaka He was the first among the ten principal lay votaries of Titthayara Mahāvira[1]

Imdabhūi, the first principal disciple of Mahāvira asked the latter if Ānamda was destined to be a monk in his present life Mahavira replied in negative and said that he would live the life of an upasaka for a period of twenty years and then after death would be born as a god in the Sohamma(1) region. Thereafter he would take birth in Mahāvideha(1) and attain liberation there [2]

While Anamda lived the life of an upasaka for a period of fourteen years and was running the fifteenth year he thought that he had many distractions while at home and therefore decided to pass the remaining life in pausadhaśala practising the eleven p atimas (standards or ideals) of an upāsaka He therefore arranged a feast invited his friends and relations and in their presence entrusted the family affairs to his eldest son left the house and entered ths pausadhaśala [3] In the end he gave up all types of food including water While living in this state of strict abstinence he acqu red avadhi jñana (l mited direct knowledge) hav ng an extent of five hundred yojanas up to the seas n th east west and south and up to Cullahimavamta in the north In the upward di ection it reached the Sohamma celestial region and in the downward direction it reached the Loluyaccuya infernal abode Anamda asked Imdabhui f a householder could acquire avadhi jnana Imdabhūi replied that he could. Thereupon Anamda told him the limits of his avadhi jnana Imdabhui however thought that householders could not obtain avadhi jnana of such a vast extent and hence asked Anamda to expiate for the wrong he had committed in tell ng a lie Anamda levelled the sam charge against Imdabhūi The case was then referred to Mahavira Imdabhui asked whether he or Anamda was in the wrong Mahavira said that Anamda was in the right and therefore Imdabhui should confess his gu lt and expiate for the same He further directed Imdabhui to ask the pardon of Anamda [4]

Asamitta (Aśvamitra) Fourth of the seven Ninhavas He established the doctrine of Samuccheya which holds that everything is momentary that is everything perishes every moment Asamitta was grand pupil of Mahāgiri and pupil of Kodinna(1) Once while studying the Aṇuppavāda Puvva he came across references like the infernal be ngs of the present moment will perish the celestial beings of the present moment will perish and so on Similarly the infernal beings as well as the celestial beings of the second moment etc will perish This provoked him to think that everything is momentary that is, it perishes immediately after its origination. This incident took place after 220 years of the death of Titthayara Mahāvīra Later he realised that his doctrine was not flawless and he disowned it.

2 Asāḍha A preceptor who took promise from each of his dying disciples to come back to him after going to heaven Many of his disciples died but none of them returned This created a doubt in his mind about the existence of heaven and hell Consequently he left the group and started living all alone Seeing this condition of the preceptor one of his late disciples who was a god in the heaven came on the earth and staged a play Asaḍha witnessed the play constantly for a period of six months He was not mindful even of hunger and thirst The god then stopped the play Asādha started for another place The god transformed himself one by one into six children well adorned with ornaments etc and met him in the way He killed all the children and took away their belongings The god then transformed himself into a king and requested the preceptor to accept food from him Asādha declined to accept it since his bowls were full of ornaments which in fact he did not want to disclose to the king He was however compelled to place the bowls before the king Now his position was very awkward The king was very angry Asaḍha had no other alterna tive but to expiate for the sin The god showed his original form and revealed the whole episode Asāḍha returned to his original place joined the group and re-established his faith in the creed [1]

H w can there be a doubt whether the self is or not ? Or f there s a doubt n whose case is th s experience of I justifiable ? W thout a doubter who is beyond all kinds of doubt but still remains in ll doubts n doubt is possible The self wh ch is the sub stratum of its attributes (cognition etc) is self-evident owing to the attr bu tes being self evident as is the case with a pitcher Thus it is proved that the soul exists

An interest ng dialogue between Goyama i e Imdabhui and Kesi (1) a monk of the line of T tthayara Pāsa (1) is recorded in Uttarajjhayaṇa[7] It indicates the way in which the union between the old sangha (church) of Pāsa and the new sangha of Mahāvira was brought about Kesi said to Goyama I want to ask you something holy man Goyama made the following reply Sir ask whatever you like Kesi said The Law taught by Pāsa recognised only four vows whereas that of Mahāvira enjoins five Both Laws pursuing the same end what has caused this difference? Goyama replied The ascetics under the first Titthayara were simple but slow of understanding those under the last one prevaricat ng and slow of understanding and those between these two were simple and w se Hence there are two forms of the Law Kesi asked another question The Law taught by Mahavira forbids clothes whereas that of Pasa allows an under and upper garment Both Laws pursuing the same end what has caused this difference? Goyama replied The various outward marks have been introduced in order to make the people recognise them as such The reason for introducing the cha acterist c ma ks is their usefulness for religious life and their distingui shing characte In fact r ght knowledge right faith and right conduct are the true causes of liberation and not the outward marks [8] Mahavira once advised Goyama to confess hi guilt before Aṇamda (11) who was simply a lay votary and t ask for his pardon for he had misgu ded Anamda He further sked him to exp ate for the same Mahavira once consoled Imdabhui by predicting You shall also attain omniscience like me [9] The name of Imdabhu is frequently mentioned in the canonical literature There he puts questions and Mahavira answers [0] He obtained omniscience immediately after the emancipation of Mahavira to whom he was ery much atta ched He atta ned emanc pat on in Rāyagiha after enjoying a life of ninety two years in all Ascetic Koḍiṇṇa(5) along with his five hundred pupils was a d sc ple of Imdabhui [13]

The word uttara in the nomenclature of Uttarajjhayana signifies three meanings (1) Last (2) Excellent and (3) Afterwards Some believe that the words contained in Uttarajjhayana are the LAST ones uttered by Mahāvīra before he attained liberation Some explain the word uttara as excellent and say that the chapters contained in Uttarajjhayana are the EXCELLENT ones[6] Others suggest that the word uttara occurring in Uttarajjhayaṇa is used to convey the idea that this text was used to be read AFTER Āyāra before Dasaveyāliya was composed and AFTER Dasaveyāliya later on[7] Uttarajjhayana will become extinct after the death of Pūsa(4) i. e after 20500 years of Mahāvira s emancipation[8]

Kulagara (Kulakara) Law-giver or Governor Seven[1] ten[2] or fifteen[3] Kulagaras, as different traditions go take birth in the middle-division of the southern half of the Bharaha(2) region lying between the rivers Gamgā and Simdhu(1) in the Susamadūsamā period of every Osappiṇī and Ussappiṇī They initiate laws for maintaining peace and order In case of the seven Kulagaras in the Osappini cycle the first two inflict the hakkara (disapproval) punishment the next two add to it the makkara (warning) and the last three the dhikkara (reproach) punishment Thus when gradu ally the severity of offences increases the punishment becomes harsher and harsher In the tradition of fifteen Kulagaras the first Titthayara Usaha(1) is taken as the fifteenth Kulagara who introduces physical pun shments in addition to the above ones Sim lar s the case n the Eravaya(1) region In the Ussappini cycle the conditions become viceversa In this Osappini the following Kulagaras were born in Bharaha(2) forming the group of seven 1 Vimalavāhana(6) 2 Cakkhuma 3 Jasama 4 Abhicamda(1) 5 Pasenai(4) 6 Marudeva(2) and 7 Nābhi[7] The names of the group of ten Kulagaras of this Osapp ni are not available but those of other cycles are given[8]

The group of fifteen Kulagaras of Bharaha(2) of this Osappini is as follows — 1 Sumai(1) 2 Padissui(2) 3 Simamkara(3) 4 Simamdhara(3) 5 Khemamkara(4) 6 Khemamdhara(1) 7 to 10 as the first four from the above group of seven 11 Camdabha(2) 12 to 14 as the last three from the above group of seven and the fifteenth is Titthayara Usaha(1)[9]

The follow ng ten K lagaras appeared in Bharaha(2) in the past Osappini[10] Sayamjala(2) Sayāu(2) Ajiyasena(5) Anamtasena(3) Kajjasena Bhimasena(2) Mahābhimasena Dadharaha(4) Dasaraha(2) and Sayaraha(1) In the Sthananga[1] there is difference n some names and their order because Sayajjala(1) Anamtasena(3) Amitasena and Takkasena are mentioned as the first third fourth and fifth Kulagaras The rest of the names and their order are the same The following seven[2] were born in the Bharaha(2) region in the past Ussappini Mittadāma, Sudāma(1) Supāsa(6) Sayampabha(2) Vimalaghosa Sughosa(1) and Mahāghosa(6)

The names of the seven would be Kulagaras[3] of the Bharaha(2) region are as follows Mittavāhaṇa or Miyavāhana(2) Subhoma(2) or Subhūma(3) Suppabha(2) Sayampabha(1) Datta(3) Suhuma or Suha and Surūva(3) or Subamdhu(2) The Titthogāli d ffers in this connection It gives the follow ing names of the seven would be Kulagaras of Bharaha(2) Vimalavā haṇa(9) Sudāma(2) Samgama(3) Supāsa(5) Datta(3) Suṇaha and Sumai(5)[4]

The Sthānānga contains altogether a different list of ten Kulagaras of the coming Ussappini in the Bharaha(2) region and the names g ven there are as follows Sīmamkara(2) Sīmamdhara(2) Khemamkara(3) Khemamdhara(2)

Vimalavāhaṇa(7) Sammui(3) Padisuta Daḍhadhaṇu(1) Dasadhaṇu(1) and Sayadhaṇu(1)[5] These names agree with those of the future ten Kulagaras of the Eravaya(1) region as given in the Samavayanga except some variation in order of the names which are as follows Vimalavāhana(8) Sīmamkara(1), Sīmamdhara(1) Khemamkara(1) Khemamdhara(3) Daḍhadhaṇu(2) Dasadhaṇu(1) Sayadhaṇu(2) Padisui(1) and Sumai(2) [6]

The Titthogali records the tradition of seven would be Kulagaras of the Eravaya(1) region Their names are Vimalavahana(8) Vrulavāhaṇa(2) Daḍhadhaṇu(2) Dasadhaṇu(1) Sayadhaṇu(2) Padisui(1) and Sumai(2) The order of the names of this tradtion agrees partly with Samavayanga. Afterwards he propounded at Sāvatthī his new doctrin holding the view that whatever is being done should not be regarded as done what ever is done i e completed should be taken as done [4] Mahāvira held that what is passing through the process of performance and is shortly going to be completed can be taken as performed from a particular view point Jamāl differed from him in this matter He observed that when a thing is definitely done then and then alone it can be taken as done A thing which is still in the process of being done cannot be taken as such Thus Jamali was an extremist absolutist He is regarded as the first Niṇhava. After death he was born as a god of Lamtaa-Kappa.

Dasaveāliya or Dasaveyāliya (Daśavaikalika) An Amgabāhira Ukkāliya text[1] Its original nam seems to be Dasakaliya[2] According to its nijjutti the title is based on two ideas viz number and time[3] The term dasa indicates that this work consists of ten chapters and kaliya suggests that this work was extracted in day time (before the third paurusi was over)[4]

1 Nan 44 Pak p 43 SthA p 52
2 DasN pp 7 9 12
3 DasN p 7
4 DasN and DasH pp 2 9 12

The word veyāliya used instead of Kaliya signifies that this work can be read or recited at Viyāla-Vikāla, i e in the evening[5] Or the text which was extracted by preceptor Sejjambhava for the welfare of his son monk Maṇaga (from different Puvvas) was systematically arranged at Viyāla[7]

Dasaveyāliya is divided into ten chapters Out of them the fifth has two sections and the ninth four Except chapters fourth and ninth all the chapters are entirely in verse Chapter fourth begins with a number of passages in prose whereas chapter ninth has some portions in prose intercepted by verses The titles of all these chapters are significant The work deals with monastic conduct The chapters bear the following names 1 Dumapupphiyā – a parable pertaining to flowers of a tree 2 Sāmaṇṇapuvvaya – the chapter commencing with monkhood 3 Khuḍḍiyāyārakahā – a brief exposition of conduct 4 Chajjīvaniya or Dhammapaṇṇatti – six groups of living beings or exposition of duty 5 Piṁḍesaṇa – search for food 6 Dhammatthakama or Mahāyārakahā – desire for liberation or a detailed exposition of conduct 7 Vakkasuddhi – purity of speech 8 Āyārappaṇihi – treasure of conduct 9 Vinayasamāhi – devotion to discipline 10 Sabhikkhu – a true monk or saint Two Cūlas (appendices) have been appended to them at the end[8]

Dasaveyaliya should be studied after Avassaga but before Uttarajjhayaṇa[9] Some of the verses of Dasav yaliya agree word by word with those of Uttarajjhayana[10] Sim larly some prose passages occuring in Dasaveyaliya tally almost word by word with those of Ayāra[1] Titthogāli predicts that the ext nction of the text of Dasaveyaliya will take place in V N 20900 and of its meaning in V N 21000[12]

into five sections (1) Parikamma (2) Sutta(2) (3) Puvvagaya (4) Aṇuoga, and (5) Cūliyā These were further divided into various sub-sections[5] It was permitted to be taught to a monk of nineteen years standing[6] It required sixteen years to receive this text and twelve years to revise it[7] It was in the time of Bhaddabāhu(1) that there occurred a twelve year famine This seriously affected the study of the monks and resulted in their forgetting some portions of Diṭṭhivāya This fact came to the knowledge of the monks when they assembled in Pāḍaliputta after the famine had disappeared Thereupon a batch of five hundred monks went to Bhadda bahu who was in Nepāla at that time to learn Diṭṭhivāya since he was the only person who was then in a position to remember and teach it All but Thūlabhadda left the place as they could not face the situation there Thulabhadda too however could not completely master even all the four teen Puvvas i e the Puvvagaya section as Bhaddabāhu withheld the meaning of the last four Puvvas from him because of some default on the part of the latter Later on with the death of Thūlabhadda, even the verbal embodiment of these four Puvvas came to an end as he was debarred from teaching them to others[8] Since then the knowledge of Puvvas went on decreasing It was by V N 1000 that all the Puvvas got forgotten and thus Ditthivaya became extinct[9]

According to the Digambara tradition also Bhaddabāhu(1) was the last Caturdaśapurvadhari Viśakhacarya etc were conversant with ten Puvvas only the last being Dharmasena (V N 345) Thereafter the knowledge of Puvvas went on decreasing and Dharasena is said to be the last one who was conversant with two Puvvas only Some say that after Sudharman only partial (ekadesiya) knowledge of Puvvas was available and no one know completely See CLJ pp 74 75 Kasayapahuda I Int p 48 Mathura 1944

Ditthivaya literally means exposition of doctrines This indicates that the real contents of Ditthivaya consisted of an exposition as well as refutation of different doctrines It has ten significant names Ditthi aya Heuvāya Bhūyavāya Taccāvāya Sammāvāya Dhammāvāya, Bhāsāvicaya Puvvagaya Anuoga and Savvapāṇabhūyajīvasattasuhāvaha[10] On account of their importance the Puvvas or the Caturdaśapūrvas as a whole are known as Diṭṭhivaya[11]

After living one hundred years life he attained liberation on the summit of mount Sammeya [17] His liberation took place 250 years before Mahāv ra s emancipation[18] and (ie was born) 83750 years after Ariṭṭhaṇemi's salvation [19] Pāsa had paid visits to Amalakappā Sāvatthi Campā Nāga pura Sāgeya Arakkhuri Mahurā(1) Rayagiha Kaṁpillapura Kosambi Hatthiṇāura etc [20]

See Imdabhūi and Kesi(1) for the Law preached by Pasa which recognises four vows and allows clothes to a monk [21] For Pasa s association with Kamatha Dharana and Padma ati the reader may be referred to Samaya sundara s commentary on Kalpasutra

The five most mportant events of Pāsa s life occured when the moon was in conjunction with constellation Visahā (1) decending from heaven and ent y into the moth r s womb (2) b rth (3) renunc at on (4) omni science and (5) emanc pation [3] As regards his name he was named Pasa in view of the fact the commentrators say that before his birth his mother saw in the da k a black serpent crawling near (pasa-pa ṁva) her bed [24] Accord ng to Sanskr t commentators Prabhavati the daughter of P asenaj t was married to Pasa

When er Mahavira has referred to Pasa he has done so in reverential terms He calls him Arahā Purusadanie [26] (i e worthy to be worsh pped and followed) We have refer nces to the effect that Mahavira agreed with many of the teach ngs of Pasa viz asaṁkhejje loe (innumerable p adeśas f tl e universe) ana nta rati nd ya (infinite days and nights) Sasae lo na l loe (unend ng and beginningl ss uni erse) etc [7]
